The Lord
has sent
an Angel

There are many ways you can support the good works of Catholic Charities. For information on estate planning, bequests, making a donation, or scheduling time to learn more about Catholic Charities, call Lorri Nagle at 815-723-3405.

The Lord sent us
an angel, again.
Our angel is the
same anonymous
donor who came to
our rescue last year.
He is willing to help again, and he
prays you will too.

In the past nine months Catholic Charities has seen things we've never seen before. Families are in crisis in record numbers, and they need your help.

We are seeing the unemployed because their benefits have been exhausted. They are often tired and in tears because they can no longer find a way to care for their family. We also see the underemployed, who were once working in professional jobs and now are earning minimum wage, unable to make ends meet.

Our largest homeless shelter has been at capacity for months and for the first time we have seen lines of people stretching around our Daybreak Center at 6:30 a.m. waiting for our Emergency Services department to open. These people don't know where else to turn for help.

The requests for food are never-ending and with pending government cuts to emergency food and shelter programs we're not sure if we'll have the resources to help.

Will you be our angel too?

For every "angel dollar" that you donate, our angel will match it – dollar for dollar – up to $50,000. Please be generous. It's Lent, a time for almsgiving and sacrifice. Be an angel to someone who will have nowhere else to turn if Catholic Charities isn't there to help.

IT'S NO LONGER JUST ABOUT GIVING HOPE, IT'S NOW A MATTER OF SURVIVAL FOR THESE PEOPLE IN DESPERATE NEED.

*"So do not fear, for I
am with you;
do not be
dismayed,
for I am your
God. I will strengthen
you and
help you."
Isaiah 41:10*
